About the register

The Scottish Parliament has approved a code of conduct for councillors and reinforces the expectation of the highest standards of behaviour. The code means that each councillor must register their own interests across a number of categories:

Gifts and hospitality

A description of any gifts or hospitality received.

Remuneration

A description of (a) remuneration received by virtue of being (i) employed or self-employed; (ii) the holder of an office; (iii) the director of an undertaking; (iv) a partner in a firm; and (v) involved in undertaking a trade, profession, vocation or any other work; (b) any allowance received in relation to membership of any organisation; (c) the name and registered name if different; and nature of any applicable employer, self-employment, business, undertaking or organisation; (d) the nature and regularity of the work that is remunerated; and (e) the name of the directorship and the nature of the applicable business.

Related Undertakings

A description of a directorship that is not itself remunerated, but is of a company or undertaking which is a parent or subsidiary of a company or undertaking which pays remuneration.

Contracts

A description of the nature and duration, but not the price of, of a contract which is not fully implemented where:

(a) goods and services are to be provided to, or works are to be executed for, the devolved public body; and (b) any responsible person has a direct interest, or an indirect interest as a partner, owner or shareholder, director or officer of a business or undertaking, in such goods and services.

Houses, land and buildings

A description of any rights or ownership or other interests that may be significant to, of relevance to, or bear upon, the work or operation of the devolved public body.

Shares and securities

A description, but not the value, of shares or securities in a company; undertaking or organisation that may be significant to, of relevance to, or bear upon, the work or operation of the devolved public body.

Non-financial interests

A description of such interests as may be significant to, of relevance to, or bear upon, the work or operation of the devolved public body, including without prejudice to that generality membership of or office in:

- (a) other public bodies;
- (b) clubs, societies and organisations;
- (c) trade unions; and
- (d) voluntary organisations.

Election expenses

A description of, and statement of, any assistance towards election expenses relating to election to the devolved public body.
